FEATURED PROJECT — TECHNICAL CAPABILITY

SentiSight — NLP-Based Customer Sentiment Analysis System | Capstone Research Project, 2025

Production-ready, end-to-end ML system to automate sentiment classification of 1,000+ real Google Reviews — built on a business I previously led operationally, giving the project direct real-world grounding. Demonstrates full software lifecycle capability: design → development → API integration → dashboard → testing.

- Scraped and processed 1,000+ real Google Reviews; built full NLP preprocessing pipeline handling Indonesian code-mixing and informal language.

- ▶ Implemented hybrid classification model (VADER + TextBlob + Naïve Bayes / SVM) — achieved 85% sentiment classification accuracy.
- ▶ Developed Flask REST API backend integrated with interactive Streamlit dashboard for real-time monitoring and decision-making.
- ▶ Validated through Black Box Testing, White Box Testing, and User Acceptance Test (UAT). Full academic paper on file.

Stack: Python · Flask · Streamlit · NLTK · spaCy · Scikit-learn · VADER · TextBlob · Naïve Bayes · SVM · Web Scraping · REST API
